

The Orthodox Anglican Church

May 18, AD 2015

whoever would be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be your slave, even as the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve

The Gospel
According to St. Matthew
xx. 26-28

On May 17, AD 2015, St Philip the Evangelist Anglican Church in Charlotte, North Carolina hosted our Franciscans (TOR). Minister General Father Anthony Giunta of Columbia, South Carolina delivered the homily and administered the rite of admission to Rebecca Burch (Sister Rebecca Clare). Sister Rebecca Clare was supported by the attendance of members of her family, and her church family (St. Augustine, Bryson City).

The service also provided an opportunity for Bishop Morales to spend some time with clergy and parishioners that will become a part of the Missionary Diocese of the Most Holy Trinity on May 31, AD 2015.

I am very grateful to the folks in Charlotte for helping to make the day a special one, and for the opportunity to encourage those who desire to dedicate themselves to prayer and service.

†Thomas E. Gordon